Part 1. An underlying problem

Activate knowledge

Invite students to get out their mobile phones.

Ask 'What do you use your phones for?'

Accept responses.

Distribute RESOURCE 10.1.1 – Phone-labelling worksheet to each student.

Divide students into pairs.

Encourage pairs to complete the worksheet by labelling the apps and phone parts.

Check the worksheet answers as a class (see RESOURCE 10.1.2 – Phone parts labelled for answers).

Focus on language

Brainstorm things that can go wrong with a mobile phone (e.g. a cracked screen).

Distribute RESOURCE 10.2 – Matching-activity sheet to each student.

Read the sentences on the sheet and invite students to point to the corresponding pictures.

Invite students to write the correct sentence underneath each picture.

RESOURCE 10.1.1
– Phone-labelling
worksheet

Print one copy per student.

RESOURCE 10.1.2 –
Phone parts labelled

Print one copy to consult for answers.

RESOURCE 10.2 –
Matching-activity sheet

Print one copy per
student.

Undertake speaking tasks

Choose one or more tasks to suit your context.

Speaking task 1: Listen and summarise

Divide students into small groups and invite them to listen carefully while you read aloud.

Read the story in RESOURCE 10.3 – A cracked phone screen is good news twice.

Invite groups to discuss the story and write a short summary.

Invite groups to share their summaries with the class.

Invite other students to make comments or ask questions about the story.

Speaking task 2: Read and define new words

Distribute RESOURCE 10.3 – A cracked phone screen is good news to each student.

Invite students to read it in small groups and circle any words that are new to them.

Define any new words.

Speaking task 3: Phone problem dialogue

Distribute a different slip from RESOURCE 10.4 – Response slips to each student. (If you have more than six students, more than one student can have the same slip.)

RESOURCE 10.3 –
A cracked phone
screen is good news
Print one text per student.

RESOURCE 10.4 –
Response slips
Print enough for one slip per student.

Read the following phone problems aloud, inviting students to hold up and read the matching response:

- 'The battery on my phone won't recharge.'
- 'I dropped my phone and the screen is cracked.'
- 'I dropped my phone in water and it's not working.'
- 'My phone cord is broken.'
- 'My phone keeps overheating.'
- 'My phone is very slow.'

Lead into Bible

Say 'In our Bible time, a man comes to Jesus with a problem. Jesus heals him but also fixes an even bigger problem.'

Part 2. Jesus heals and forgives a paralysed man

Luke 5:17-26 (paraphrase)

This Bible paraphrase will be referred to later in this lesson.

Jewish leaders and teachers came from all over the region to see Jesus. While Jesus was teaching in a house, some men arrived carrying a man who could not walk. He was lying on a mat. They tried to take him into the house but it was too crowded, so they went onto the roof. They lowered the man through the roof into the middle of the crowd, in front of Jesus.

Jesus saw that they had faith, and said to the man, 'Friend, your sins are forgiven.' The Jewish leaders and teachers thought, 'Who is this man? Who can forgive sins but God alone?'

Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said, 'Is it easier to say, "Your sins are forgiven" or "Get up and walk"? Let me show you that I have authority to forgive sins.' He said to the man who could not walk, 'Get up. Take your mat and go home.' The man stood up and went home praising God.

Review previous lessons

Display Story sketches 1-9 (pages 6-14 in Introduction).

Point to the Story sketches one at a time, inviting students to summarise the Bible story from each of the previous lessons.

Display Summary statements 1-9 (pages 7-25 in Introduction).

Invite students to match each sketch with its corresponding statement.

Re-read the Summary statements from each lesson, pointing to the corresponding sketches.

Predict content

Display RESOURCE 10.5 – Story sketch 10.

Invite students to describe what they see.

Invite students to tell a story about the picture.

RESOURCE 10.5 –
Story sketch 10

Print one A4 or A3
copy to display.

Read and comprehend

Activity 1: Listen, read and summarise

Read the following Bible paraphrase aloud to the class.

Luke 5:17-26 (paraphrase)

Jewish leaders and teachers came from all over the region to see Jesus. While Jesus was teaching in a house, some men arrived carrying a man who could not walk. He was lying on a mat. They tried to take him into the house but it was too crowded, so they went onto the roof. They lowered the man through the roof into the middle of the crowd, in front of Jesus.

Jesus saw that they had faith, and said to the man, 'Friend, your sins are forgiven.' The Jewish leaders and teachers thought, 'Who is this man? Who can forgive sins but God alone?'

RESOURCE 10.6 –
Bible text

Print one Bible text per student.

HEART LANGUAGE

Optional: Invite students to read the passage in their heart language.

Visit bible.com or biblegateway.com to find a number of international translations.

RESOURCE 10.7 –
Worksheet

student.

Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said, 'Is it easier to say, "Your sins are forgiven" or "Get up and walk"? Let me show you that I have authority to forgive sins.' He said to the man who could not walk, 'Get up. Take your mat and go home.' The man stood up and went home praising God.

Distribute RESOURCE 10.6 – Bible text to each student.

Re-read the passage aloud.

Ask 'Are there any words that are new to you?'

Define any new words (e.g. sins).

Invite the class to work together to summarise the text.

Write summary points on the board.

Activity 2: Worksheet

Distribute RESOURCE 10.7 – Worksheet to each student.

Invite students to work with those around them to complete it.

Check answers together.

Activity 3: Retell from a different perspective

Divide students into pairs.

Invite pairs to retell the story from the perspective of the paralysed man and/or his friends.

Invite volunteers to share their retelling with the class.

Activity 4: True or False

Bring students back together as a class.

Ask True/False questions, inviting students to respond with a thumbs up or thumbs down.

- 'Nobody had heard about Jesus.' F
- 'The Jewish leaders came from all over Israel.' T
- 'Jesus was teaching in a garden.' F
- 'Some men arrived with a sick woman.' F
- 'The house was empty.' F
- 'The men lowered their friend through the roof.' T
- 'Jesus told the man to roll over.' F
- 'Jesus forgave the man.' T
- 'Jesus healed the man.' T

Invite curiosity

Ask 'Do you have any questions or comments about the story?'

An important question

Ask 'What was surprising about what Jesus did?'

Summary statement

Say 'Jesus healed a paralysed man to show that he can also forgive sins.'

10.2 RESOURCE – Matching-activity sheet

Lesson 10: Part 1. An underlying problem
Print one copy per student.

Write the correct sentence under its matching picture below.

- My phone cord is broken.
- I dropped my phone in water and it's not working.
- My phone keeps overheating.
- The battery on my phone won't recharge.
- My phone is very slow.
- I dropped my phone and the screen is cracked.

My phone is very slow.

10.3 RESOURCE – A cracked phone screen is good news

Luke.In.10

Lily dropped her mobile phone. The screen cracked. Lily went to a phone repair shop. It was crowded in the shop. Lily moved through the crowd until she was in front of the repairer. He said he could fix the screen for $150 dollars. Lily left the phone and went back later to get it. The man told her that she didn't have to pay. Lily was surprised. The man told her that her phone was faulty. He said it was easier to give Lily a new phone than to fix a faulty one. For Lily, a cracked phone screen was good news. She went home praising the phone repairer!
